

Join us in the 2019 SOUTHERN CONE TESOL!
We have prepared a special schedule for you.

Patricia Colorado | Pearson

BECOMING OUR BEST SELVES: REDEFINING THE ETHOS OF
THE 21ST CENTURY TEACHER

Friday, July 19th

4:45pm - 5:30pm

Maria Montessori Auditorium

Biodata: Patricia is a dedicated trilingual bookworm (she speaks English, Spanish and French). She obtained her BA in Modern Languages from Los Andes University, after spending some time in studying at Wake Forest University, In North Carolina (US). She has taught students from primary to postgraduate levels at bilingual schools, universities, and language centers. She has also worked as an editor, and as project manager for the British Council in her native Colombia and worked alongside the Colombian Ministry of Education in the "Colombia Bilingüe" Programme. Later, she obtained her Master's Degree in Children's Literature from Macquarie University in Sydney, Australia.

Patricia has spent a good amount of her 28+ years of experience as a teacher and teacher trainer. Nowadays, she works with teachers and colleagues from all over Latin America in her role as Senior Curriculum Specialist for Pearson International.

VISIT OUR STAND!

2nd floor | stand P2

We look forward to showing you how we can empower and inspire English students - together!

