

A TESOL INTERNATIONAL ACADEMY

on English for Specific Purposes

São Paulo, Brazil

Universidade Metodista de São Paulo

Friday, 27 September–Saturday, 28 September 2013

TESOL International Association, BRAZ-TESOL, and APLIESP (São Paulo State Association of Teachers of English) have developed a unique professional development Academy combining 8 hours of hands-on workshop training, knowledge-sharing opportunities, and lively plenary sessions.

This is the perfect Academy for English language teachers, administrators, and trainers who want to learn to teach English for specific purposes (ESP) or to enhance their ESP teaching skills.

Participants will explore the latest trends, case studies, and developments in the ESP field

- in-depth ESP program development, curriculum, materials design, and delivery
- best practices for needs assessment, identifying performance goals, and measuring outcomes
- all participants who are eligible will receive a 1-year TESOL global membership

Registration

Early registration (deadline to be announced): $110 (220 Brazilian Real)

Late or on-site registration: $135 (275 Brazilian Real)

Fees include all materials and refreshment breaks

For more information visit www.tesol.org/attend-and-learn or contact John Donaldson, Director of Education Programs phone: 703-518-2528
email: jdonaldson@tesol.org