

A. Read the conversation. Do Sam and Emma like working from home?

Sam: Hi, Emma! Have you ever thought about the bad side of working from home?

Emma: Yeah, I have. It's not always great, is it?

Sam: No, it's not. One big problem is that it can be lonely. You miss talking with coworkers and making friends at the office.

Emma: That's true. And it's easy to get distracted at home, with all the comfy things around, like your bed or the TV.

Sam: Exactly! Plus, it's hard to stay organized without a boss or team to keep you focused.

Emma: I also find it tough to separate work from home life. You sometimes work longer hours sometimes.

Sam: Yeah, that's an issue. And technical problems, like a bad internet connection or computer troubles, can be really annoying.

Emma: Ugh, those can be frustrating! So, working from home isn't as perfect as it seems, right?

Sam: You're right. It has its challenges, for sure.

B. Underline 5 things they don't like about working from home. The first one is done for you.

Solutions

A. Read the conversation. Do Sam and Emma like working from home?

Sam: Hi, Emma! Have you ever thought about the bad side of working from home?

Emma: Yeah, I have. It's not always great, is it?

Sam: No, it's not. One big problem is that it can be lonely. You miss talking with coworkers and making friends at the office.

Emma: That's true. And it's easy to get distracted at home, with all the comfy things around, like your bed or the TV.

Sam: Exactly! Plus, it's hard to stay organized without a boss or team to keep you focused.

Emma: I also find it tough to separate work from home life. You sometimes work longer hours sometimes.

Sam: Yeah, that's an issue. And technical problems, like a bad internet connection or computer troubles, can be really annoying.

Emma: Ugh, those can be frustrating! So, working from home isn't as perfect as it seems, right?

Sam: You're right. It has its challenges, for sure.

B. Underline 5 things they don't like about working from home. The first one is done for you.

Work from Home Tips

Write 8 tips. - 4 affirmative and 4 negative.

